

NTE5A Master Line Socket

The NTE5A master socket provides a clear demarcation between the telephone operators network and the customer extension wiring via a removable connection unit (lower half). The product also provides line test, ringing components and over voltage protection. The NTE5A features a BT601A socket (4 wires connected) on the front for connection of telephone apparatus as well as an IDC connection on the rear for extension wiring.

- Fully approved
 - Supplied with surface mount 23mm deep back box, screws and cable tie-wrap
 - Can be flush mounted with standard back boxes
 - Made from white high gloss VO rated material
- NTE stands for "Network Terminating Equipment"

338317.276095

Order Code
506-0254

Price Each