Aavid Releases New Heat Pipe Exploration Kit

Aavid's Heat Pipe Exploration Kit is for you to get your hands onto heat pipes and get a feel for how they work, what they do, and try them out in your own application.

This kit is perfect for interaction and education in any design lab or engineering environment. Take advantage of this one of a kind tool that allows any Design Engineer, Applications Engineer, Product Development, and Research & Development team member to develop, test, and create the next generation of cooling solutions.
