The biggest drawer set in the Rhino range has all the features you've come to expect - braked casters, locking butterfly catches, grab handles, a full length piano hinge - and then adds even more storage space. Four cavernous compartments in the swing door are great for bigger tools like drills, saws and crowbars. And to make sure it won't topple over, there's an added fifth caster on the door itself. This is one drawer set that stores so much you'll almost need a sat nav to find your spanners!
