Reason For Change Tooling / Equipment Transfer

Change Description This is to inform you about an addition of a manufacturing site for 505004-0810/505006-0810 (0.4 BB Rec/Plug Assy <with no use of HIGH BARRIER PACKAGING>). These products are currently produced in Japan plants only. This time Molex is planning to start their production in Molex Korea to efficiently meet customer demand by building a two-base manufacturing structure. Molex Korea will use existing manufacturing machines. Molex Korea starts mass production around 20th May 2015. Molex announced this plan to our customers in advance.
