

Product Change Notification

Product Group: Vishay Siliconix/Mar 03, 2014/PCN- SIL-0062015 Rev1

Fab Site Transfer

DESCRIPTION OF CHANGE: For the products listed in this notification we are changing the Fab site from Global Foundries, Singapore to Vishay Siliconix Itzehoe GmbH (VSIG) located at Fraunhoferstraße 1, 25524 Itzehoe, Germany. VSIG has been an automotive Fab with ISO14001 and TS16949 certifications for more than 10 years.

No changes have been made to the silicon process technology, wafer test, assembly process and final test. Production of the affected parts will be terminated per the time schedule in this notification and last time buy orders must be received within the specified timeframe.

CLASSIFICATION OF CHANGE: Fab Site Transfer

REASON FOR CHANGE: Discontinuation from Global Foundries and transfer of production to VSIG

EXPECTED INFLUENCE ON QUALITY/RELIABILITY/PERFORMANCE: None

PRODUCT CATEGORY: Automotive MOSFETs

VISHAY BRAND(s): Vishay-Siliconix

QUALIFICATION DATA: Qualification report from VSIG Fab for individual part type will be provided upon request.

SAMPLE AVAILABILITY: Schedule of availability of qualified samples from VSIG Fab is listed on following page. For samples, please email automos.pcn@Vishay.com with include part number, pcn number, date samples needed, required quantity and ship-to address.

TIME SCHEDULE: Last time buy orders are required by 03-Sep-2015 and last time shipments must be received by 03-Mar-2016. Due to the timing of the supply discontinuation, last time buy quantities are limited and inventory is available to cover the historical run rate through Q4 2015. LTB orders will be serviced on a first come first served basis as best possible.
