

23 December 2016

Ref: BCS75/100/155 End of life notice

This notice is to advise our distribution channel that the BCS range of products will no longer be manufactured after June 1, 2017.

Orders for the BCS75, BCS100 and BCS155 series that are not from current inventory and need to be manufactured by the factory should be placed by March 1, 2017 to ensure sufficient manufacturing time prior to June delivery.

We will continue to supply product from our inventory until June 2019 or until such supply is exhausted, whichever comes first.

If you have any customers that are currently purchasing any of the BCS series they will need to be made aware of the situation and offered a last time buy.

If you have any questions, please contact feel free to contact me to discuss.

Best Regards
