PCN #:E-18-018572

Subject:cable assembly

Description of Change: The pull tab, the new pull tab are more soft and short. This QSFP pull tab change will have no effect on the pull tab functionality

Reason: Product Improvement. As part of TE design and material consolidation activities, TE is making a change to the QSFP pull tab. This pull tab is currently specified on a TE cable assembly PN that you purchase or have purchased in the past. The new QSFP pull tab is 30mm shorter in length and uses a Santoprene material instead of nylon. This QSFP pull tab change will have no effect on the pull tab functionality
