Subject: Replacement of 462 series by 885 series SMD fuses

Hello all,

This is a 90-Day PCN.

To enhance assurance of supply and product rationalization at the same time, we will be replacing some of the existing ratings of the NANO 462 series with the recently introduced 885 series fuses.

This PCN affects the below ratings of the NANO 462 series fuses as we replace these ratings with the 885 series,

- 1A and above → 1A, 1.25A, 1.6A, 2A, 2.5A, 3.15A, 4A, 5A

As regards to the ratings below 1A, Littelfuse will continue to support the below ratings of the 462 series,

- 0.5A, 0.630A and 0.8A

Please see attached ;

- Powerpoint on the comparison of the 462 series versus 885 series
- Validation report of 885 series

Affected part numbers for 462 series and the relevant 885 series part numbers are as stated below;
