Banner will accept last time orders with a Minimum Order Quantity (MOQ) of 4 pcs for the products listed above through January 31st, 2025. These final orders are non-cancellable and non-returnable and will ship according to order date and standard lead time.

Banner will accept return of unused stock of the products listed within their original packaging and whose manufacturing date is no more than two years old through March 31st, 2025 under an RMA. This is the final opportunity to return these products for credit.

Please inform your sales teams of this product discontinuation notice and consult with customers who may want to purchase spare parts for their installed base of these wireless products. Please reach out to your Banner regional sales team for this or any other wireless solution assistance you may have. Our applications engineering team will be available to suggest alternatives that can meet your customer requirements.

Thank You!
