

Description

Seamless Knit Nylon Glove with NeoFoam® Coated Palm & Fingers - Light Duty

These seamless knit nylon shell gloves offer increased comfort and finger dexterity while the coating offers an incredibly secure grip in dry conditions that provides breathability and ideal for handling and the assembly of parts. These gloves are touchscreen compatible to allow the user to operate a touch screen phone or device without removing and the knit wrist helps prevent dirt and debris from entering the glove, plus they are launderable for extended life and reduction of replacement costs.

Applications
