Dear Valued Customer

End of Life Notification: Laird Ttape 1000A Thermal Tape Thermal Interface Material

We are writing to inform you of Laird's decision to discontinue the manufacture and sale of Ttape A1000 series of products (the "Affected Products") as of December 31, 2025 or as contracts will allow. Quantities will be established by Laird's order acknowledgment based on the raw materials we have on hand until they are fully consumed. All orders must request a ship date prior to January 30, 2026; actual ship dates tied to specific orders are established by Laird's order acknowledgement. There is currently no replacement material.

We appreciate your understanding of this situation and your continuing business with Laird. If you have any questions, your Laird account manager will be happy to help you.

Sincerely
Jim Latham

The information set forth herein is furnished free of charge, is based on technical data that Laird believes to be reliable, and represents typical values that fall within the normal range of properties. This information relates only to the specific material designated and may not be valid for such material used in combination with other materials or in other processes. It is intended for use by persons having technical skill, at their own discretion and risk. This information should not be used to establish specification limits nor used alone as the basis of design. Handling precaution information is given with the understanding that those using it will satisfy themselves that their particular conditions of use present no health or safety hazards and comply with applicable law. Since conditions of product use and disposal are outside our control, we make no warranties, express or implied, and assume no liability in connection with any use of this information. As with any product, evaluation under end-use conditions prior to specification is essential. Nothing herein is to be taken as a license to operate or a recommendation to infringe on patents.

CAUTION: Do not use Laird materials in medical applications involving implantation in the human body or contact with internal body fluids or tissues unless the material has been provided by Laird under a written contract that is consistent with the DuPont policy regarding medical applications and expressly acknowledges the contemplated use. For further information, please contact your Laird representative.

Laird's sole warranty is that our products will meet our standard sales specifications in effect at the time of shipment. Your exclusive remedy for breach of such warranty is limited to refund of purchase price or replacement of any product shown to be other than as warranted. TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, LAIRD SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIMS ANY OTHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED WARRANTY OF FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, MERCHANTABILITY, OR NON-INFRINGEMENT. LAIRD DISCLAIMS LIABILITY FOR ANY SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES.
