

• Description

The "poor man's" accelerometer! Tilt sensors are switches that can detect basic motion/orientation. The metal tube has a little metal ball that rolls around in it, when its tilted upright, the ball rolls onto the contacts sticking out of end and shorts them together.

• Technical Details

Dimensions:

- Diameter: 4mm/0.16in
- Height: 11.62mm/0.46in
- Weight: 0.61g/0.02oz