| Title: New errata for Zero Gecko family, EFM32ZGXXX  |                      |  |                      |
| Bulletin Details   |                      |  |                      |
| Description:   |                      |  |                      |
| Silicon Labs is announcing an updated Errata, revision 0.40. The updated Errata includes EMU_E110, which provides a firmware workaround for a rare flash issue that can occur after EM2 wakeup. |                      |  |                      |
| The update also brings consolidation of all EFM32ZGXXX Errata and Errata History documents into a single Errata document, and updates the formatting.   |                      |  |                      |
| Please reference the Errata revision 0.40 for complete details.   |                      |  |                      |
| Reason:  |                      |  |                      |
| Added EMU_E110.   |                      |  |                      |
