

Description

Changing the game for 2018 Game Max have introduced the Game Max Expedition MATX Gaming case with full side window. Designed for maximum cooling, the Expedition is a compact MATX case with a simple but stylish front panel, the Expedition comes in Black, White, Red or Blue. The white Expedition comes with a 1 x 120mm 15 Blue LED Exhaust Fan to give your chassis some colour. The inside of the Expedition has a large amount of space to upgrade your PC over time, the internal layout allows you to fit a 1 x 120mm water cooling system at the top or 2 x 120mm fans which can be fitted to maximise airflow and cooling options.

Don't let the compact size fool you see, this little one handles full size components while still offering roomy installation space. In line with the Game Max ethos, this case offers style, performance and the ultimate experience.
