DATE: March 2021	TYPE: Modification – Country of Origin Change

XM2S D-Sub Connector - Country of Origin Change & Appearance change

Effective April 1st, the XM2S series D-Sub connectors will transfer country of origin from Japan to China in the interest of improving productivity. There will also be a change in the appearance due to a change of resin plating line. This modification notice will explain the appearance change. The part number (suffix only), product code (internal to Omron) and COO markings will also change. Should you have any questions, please communicate with the Connector Product Manager, Patrick Lahey.
