Change:

➤ Description of the technical change:

New copy tool for secondary coil body and supplier change for this secondary coil body.

Same raw materials used by the new supplier vs the previous supplier.

Same dimensions, shapes supplied by the new supplier as well vs the previous supplier.

The new supplier is an already LEM qualified supplier producing already lots of parts for LEM products since a while.

➤ Reason of the technical change:

Existing tool at current supplier will reach its life cycle end soon. Need to make a new one. At the same time, suppliers' standardization to secure supply chain.
