DESCRIPTION OF CHANGE:

In order to enhance the product reliability, Würth Elektronik eiSos has updated the firmware to improve radio packet reception.

There will be no additional change in form, fit, quality or reliability of the product.

The firmware version 1.2.0 does not affect radio conformity and certification of the product.

Refer to the "DETAILS OF CHANGE" section for more information on the changes in the firmware version 1.2.0.

Würth Elektronik eiSos recommends its customers to update their existing products to firmware version 1.2.0 via the UART interface using the ACC Tool. Refer to the user manual for detail instructions on the firmware update process.

The last three digits of the lot number of the affected products indicate the firmware version. Lot numbers ending with xxxxxxxxxxxx102 are flashed with the firmware version 1.2.0.

All products shipped after the effective date will include the new firmware version preinstalled. In case a firmware freeze to the current version is required, contact your local sales representative or our support team at wcs@we-online.com

For customer testing purposes, Würth Elektronik eiSos can provide the firmware image prior to the effective date. Contact our support team at wcs@we-online.com
