General Product Description:
Sensors Product Termination Notification

Description of Changes
Dear Sir or Madam, As announced in May, due to the planned closure of the Speyer manufacturing facility, the PN listed in this notification will be discontinued and unavailable after the final production date. Customers are requested to provide feedback per the LTB conditions below. Therefore, TE Connectivity (TE) is initiating a Last Time Buy (LTB) opportunity.* -- Affected product: TE PN: 1952057-1;5-2319554-1;HPP811B038;10131380-05 Customer PN: 8U0.947.555;N/A -- LTB conditions: Demand information by 30 Nov 2026 LTB last order date: 30 Jan 2027 Last delivery date: 30 Jun 2028 LTB orders are final and non-cancellable.

Reason for Changes:
Part status change.TE cannot accept orders for this product after the LTB last order date. Customers are strongly advised to review long-term demand and place a consolidated final order before that date. Production will cease following closure of the plant. As part of the product transition, supplier source and shipping origin may change. Any changes will be communicated in advance to allow sufficient time for qualification and approval. *Any previously issued End-of-Life (EOL) change notifications for affected parts remain valid. In addition, customer-specific EOL, LTB, final purchase quantity, last order date, or final delivery arrangements or commitments previously communicated, agreed, or otherwise established between TE and the customer remain in effect and are not affected by this notification. In the event of a conflict, such customer-specific arrangements or commitments shall prevail. For questions or assistance in evaluating demand, please contact your TE sales representative.
